Emmet May Found Not Guilty By Jury

The case of Emmet May was finally concluded, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Attorney General Andrews began his address to the jury. He contended that May, as an agent of the Germania Insurance Co., had converted the $1000 insurance money for his own business purposes and scorned the plea that Mrs. Bettencourt had asked for the investment at her own accord. Daira had not been called by the prosecution as it dared not risk the responsibility.
